had been a member of the ——— Sabbath school, and [illegible] "Mother," she said, "dress me in my white dress, I want to go to Sabbath school. I'll miss my little [illegible] if I stay away, and Miss ——— will be there, and all the little girls. Do, mother, dress me." But ere the sun arose next morning, little Mary's spirit had passed away. She had been robed in her white dress, and whilst weeping friends stood around her lifeless body, her happy, glorified spirit was transferred to the Sabbath school above.

Yes, dear children, little Mary is "gone home to the 'happy land,'" and if we love and serve God whilst we stay in this world, when we have done all that he has for us to do here, we will be permitted to go where little Mary and all "the dear ones" that have passed on before are.

Attack on Tories in East Tennessee.—A band of tories, about seventy in number, under an outlaw named Taylor, were attacked on the 23d, in Johnson county, Tenn., by forty of our men, under Col. Folks. A letter says:

The tory cavalry and infantry were parading in a field near the Fish Springs. Col. Folk ordered his men to swim the river and charge them. The tories seeing this, abandoned their horses and took shelter upon the summit of a large ridge. Folk's men were then dismounted, and charged up the ridge, completely dispersing the tories. All of their horses were captured. Four of the tories were killed, and a number wounded and captured. The captured were immediately hung, by order of Col. Folk. Taylor was killed.
